Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art made of record does not teach or fairly suggest the combination of elements as recites in the following independent claim(s). Specifically, the prior art of record does not teach:

reading preprocessing information, the preprocessing information including override information for nullifying the information associated with a same one or more sites or site links from the plurality of router files, wherein the network topology is generated based additionally on the override information.

The dependent claims being definite, further limiting and fully enabled by the specification are also allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Examiner's Amendment

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR

Art Unit: 2161

1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

IN THE CLAIMS:

33. (Previously Presented) The computer-readable medium of claim [32] 14, wherein the instructions, when executed by one or more processors, cause the one or more processors to perform:

reading a list of one or more router names from a source, wherein the source is a network management system, a database, or a router query result; generating a router name from the router configuration file associated with each of the one or more routers;

comparing the one or more router names from the router configuration files to the list of one or more router names from the source, and upon a router name from the router configuration files not being in the list of one or more router names from the source, generating an exception.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Lawrence Goerke on September 25, 2006.
